Deposit

- If you attend Boston University, University of Chicago, Columbia University/Barnard, Emory University, Harvard University, University of Michigan, University of Pennsylvania, Princeton University, Stanford University, University of Virginia, or Yale University, you are required to submit a $500 deposit which will be applied as a credit toward the Program Fee. The Program Fee covers housing, some meals, and some program activities.
 - If you are a Brown University, Cornell University, or Washington University at St. Louis student, you do not need to submit a $500 deposit directly to Columbia University. Your home school will bill you accordingly.
 - Visiting Students: If you do not attend any of the above schools, you are considered a Visiting Student. Visiting Students must submit a $500 nonrefundable deposit to secure a place in the program. The deposit will be credited towards the Program Fee which covers housing, some meals, and some program activities. If you have been provisionally accepted and fail to meet your requirements or are wait-listed and a space does not open up, your deposit will be refunded to you. If your school pays the $500 deposit on your behalf, please complete this form and submit it to your study abroad office.
- Enclosed please find a check or money order made payable to Columbia University in the amount of $500 for the deposit. (Please include your name, KCJS, and term on the check.)

- Please submit a check drawn on a U.S. bank in U.S. dollars
 - Please include your name, KCJS, and term/year on your check
